Thanks, Allison. I'd definitely like to talk with you at some point. I'm in meetings all day today, and I know I'll be able to update the whole team on Tuesday at our regular meeting. But there are a few things to touch base with you on – the main one is the pesticide decision, but also I wanted to check in with you on response to comments.

Talk to you later - Jenny

Hi Jenny--

Unfortunately, that time conflicts with another already scheduled meeting I have to attend. I'll be around after (except from 3:30-4:30 ET) if you would like to touch base about anything.

Hi Everyone – I'm trying to reschedule our pesticides team meeting. I'm working on an issues paper that lays out the options for how litigation action affects EPA and NOAA's decision on CZARA. We'd like to have a recommendation to managers. I'll share with you the issues paper I put together later today or tomorrow.

Thanks,
Jenny
